

Law Enforcement In-service Seminar: Gangs & Human Trafficking
September 14th – 15th, 2026 • 8:00am to 5:00pm

Crater Criminal Justice Training Academy

6130 County Drive Disputanta, VA 23842

Monday, September 14th – Gangs

presented by detectives with Richmond Police Department and Henrico Police/FBI Task Force

Overview of Gang History / Origins- This class is designed to be an updated overview of national street gangs operating in Virginia

Legal Updates- This class is designed to update law enforcement and prosecutors on the main Virginia and Federal Laws available to dismantle and prosecuting criminal street gangs.

Building a gang case- This class is designed to provide law enforcement with how to build a gang case from identification to prosecution. Utilization of social media, legal resources to strengthen the case.

Neighborhood Based Gangs- Identification of NBG's, difference between National and local gangs, crime trends with NBG's

Updated Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs in VA- Current trends in Virginia pertaining to OMG's / African American OMG's, identifiers, how to conduct safe traffic stops with OMG Members

Tuesday, September 15th – Human Trafficking

presented by Henrico Police Division Organized Crime Section

Overview of Human Trafficking- This class is designed to be a refresher course for the definitions of human trafficking and general awareness of the issue facing our country/state.

Legal Updates- This class is designed to update law enforcement and prosecutors on the main Virginia and Federal Laws available to dismantle and prosecute instances of human trafficking.

Vice Operations- Vice operations will cover techniques for proactively targeting the commercial sex trade through the use of undercover operations and interdiction.

Victim Advocacy/ Aftercare Concerns- This class is designed to provide law enforcement with an overview of the importance of identifying and providing meaningful services to human trafficking victims. Additionally, this class will focus on partnerships with non-government organizations.

Please contact Emily Kasky, In-service Training Coordinator, with any questions

ekasky@ccjta.org – 804.722.9742 x 134